

Is a business degree in your future?

Get started while you're still in high school!

Anne Arundel Community College (AACC), in partnership with Severna Park High School's Business, Innovation & Leadership Signature Program, is offering students the opportunity to begin a pathway to a business or entrepreneurship degree.

Students can enroll in this program and be eligible to earn 6 college credits (two courses) during their junior year at Severna Park High School:

"Introduction to Entrepreneurship" (ESI-103) - proficiency credit available for students successfully completing AACPS's Honors Entrepreneurship and the AACC proficiency assessment.

"Introduction to Business" (BPA-111)* - taught on-location at Severna Park High School beginning spring 2021.

During senior year, Pathway to Business students may take 12 credits (four courses) at Anne Arundel Community College in Arnold during the school day:

FALL TERM*

"Business Communications" (BPA-162)

"Business Law 1" (LGS-253)

SPRING TERM*

"Financial Accounting" (BPA-201)

"Fundamentals of Oral Communication (COM-111)

*ECAP discount applies to AACC courses

After high school graduation, students can either attend AACC and complete an associate degree in business or entrepreneurship in approximately three full-time terms OR request to transfer these courses to a four-year university. Many of these courses are required by Maryland public universities for a bachelor's degree in business.

Degrees offered at AACC include an Associate of Science (A.S.) in Business Administration (transfer) or an Associate of Applied Science (A.A.S.) in Entrepreneurship or in Business Management with a concentration in areas such as:

- Advertising/Marketing
- Office Management
- Business Communications
- Small Business Management
- Human Resources
- Supply Chain Management
